

CONSORTIUM FOR CITIZENS WITH DISABILITIES

PREVENTION TASK FORCE ACTIVITIES OF 2010

Co-Chairs: Justine Maloney, Learning Disabilities Association, jmaloneylda@verizon.net
David Auxter, Research Institute for Independent Living, dauxter@verizon.net
Joyce Martin, American Association of Intellectual Developmental Disabilities joyce@aaid.org
Roberta Carlin, American Association for Disability Health, rcarlin@aahd.org

Legislation

- Supported the National Children's Study
- Advocated for Passage of legislation on the prevention of obesity
- Advocated for chemical policy reform and consumer product safety associated with the Toxic Substance Control Act
- Advocated for school health clinic and safe school environments.
- Worked with coalitions on issues associated with reauthorization the Child Nutrition Act of 2004
- Advocated for public health issues associated with entitlement programs
- Participated with a coalition on health disparities at a congressional briefing
- Commented on Senate briefings on Disability Prevention issues

Fiscal Policies

- Commented on the President's FY 2011 budget with an analysis of social determinants in public health (i.e. disability prevention) in departments other than HHS

Infrastructure Development

- Analyzed disability prevention legislation of the 111th Congress
- Commented on formulation of public health/disability prevention issues in policy forums related to health care reform in the 111th Congress.

PLANNED TASK FORCE ACTIVITIES FOR 2011

Legislation

- Advocate for legislation that promotes health and wellness for individuals with disabilities
- Support continuation of the National Children's Study
- Advocate for school wellness policies of the Child Nutrition Act.
- Advocate for chemical policy reforms associated with toxic chemicals
- Advocate for healthy school outcomes and safe school environments.
- Work with coalitions on anti-poverty legislation
- Advocate for inclusion of disability as a health disparity in federal legislation

Other Activities

- Advocate for appropriations for disability prevention programs.
- Analyze the President's Budget concerning disability prevention programs

- Analyze disability prevention legislation of the 112th Congress
- Comment on formulation of public health/disability prevention issues in policy forums.
- Disseminate information on H1N1 to disability organizations.
- Support the Center for Disease Control and Prevention NCBDDD on public health and disability activities.