Statement from Laura Weidner and Carol Tyson, CCD Chair and Vice-Chair, on the Supreme Court's Dobbs v Jackson Women's Health Organization Ruling

As Consortium for Constituents with Disabilities Chair and Vice-Chair, we acknowledge the impact of the Supreme Court decision overturning Roe v Wade on people with disabilities. For your information we are sharing a memorandum on the implications and responses from CCD member organizations. We are also sharing a statement from The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights, of which we are a member. Please contact us with additional resources or contact the organizations below with questions. We encourage Task Force and member conversations.

Webinar Series on Reproductive and Disability Rights

Join the Autistic Self Advocacy Network (ASAN) for a webinar series on Reproductive and Disability Rights, Thursdays, June 30th, July 7th, and July 14th from 6-7:30 pm Eastern. All three webinars are open to everyone, but ASAN especially wants to invite self-advocates and allies to attend. The webinars will be on Zoom and will have CART (Communication Access Realtime Translation), and will also be streamed on Youtube. Hyperlink or URL for more
